Ramadan Message from the Head of Inclusion

Ramadan reminds us that inclusion begins with compassion. May this blessed month strengthen our sense of empathy, unity, and shared responsibility toward every learner.

Elementary Poetry Recitation Competition

We are incredibly proud of Osama Salloum (Grade 3) for participating in the Elementary Poetry Recitation Competition 2026. He demonstrated confidence, courage, and excellent stage presence. His achievement reflects the inclusive and supportive environment we nurture at SAIS.

Connection Builds Confidence

When families engage, children flourish. Mommy & Me was a beautiful reminder that belonging begins at home and grows at school.

Celebrating Mrs. Marwa Aly

We joyfully celebrated the birthday of our Head of Inclusion, Mrs. Marwa Aly. Under Mrs. Marwa's leadership, we feel a true sense of belonging one team, one family. We celebrate each other's milestones with joy, appreciation, and gratitude. Together, we nurture a culture of care, unity, respect, and wellbeing, where every member feels valued, supported, and inspired. ✨
